HOLIDAY MARKETPLACE AT THE BRUSH

Lowell, MA -- The Brush offers a quaint and intimate place to shop and find hidden gems created by local artists. Talk to the artists in their studios while shopping and browse the associate artist displays to get great ideas for the Holidays.

If you are tired of the mall and prefer the gallery setting filled with creations from the heart, the Brush is the place to shop in November and December this year.

Soup & Shop Friday, December 9, 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM

All visitors are invited to have complementary homemade soups while shopping. These are made by the Brush Studio Artists and members of the board.

Sugar & Spice Saturday & Sunday, December 17 and 18, Noon to 4:00 PM

All visitors are invited to have complementary home baked cookies while shopping. These are baked by the Brush Studio artists and members of the board.

The Brush Art Gallery and Studios is located in the Lowell National Historical Park across the courtyard from the Visitor Center. This dynamic and captivating venue was originally founded by the Lowell Historic Preservation Commission, U.S. Department of the Interior. The Brush presents museum quality exhibitions, educational programs, and has collaborated with many other nonprofit groups. Artists occupy studio spaces to interact with and educate the public on a weekly basis. Currently, eleven studio artists produce paintings, drawings, illustration, photography, jewelry, sculpture, ceramics, quilts, and handwoven items. Associate artists display work in the common area. The Brush Art Gallery and Studios is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization. The Brush is supported by the Lowell National Historical Park.
